Dear Vicki and Jim,

Here we are in Libby, Montana, suddenly, as dad had to come out on some job on the Libby Dam. We flew from Seattle to Spokane which took only forty minutes. I didn't have my usual relaxer as the plane left at 8:30 A.M. this morning, so I thought the flight was a little rough, altho dad said it wasn't, although one man had his coffee spilled on him. The captain announced at one time to keep our seat belts fastened as we would be "picked around" a little. I didn't mind because I knew we were close to Spokane. There, we got a new Dodge and stopped in Idaho for lunch and had a very nice drive to Libby.

but the day time game hasn't started yet but I will keep plenty busy. Dad will be at the house all day and I will enjoy looking and working around. We probably will be here for several days. The scenery is beautiful here as we aren't too far from Glacier.

The low for tonight is supposed to be 35°.

I will call you when we get home.

Love,
Mom.
